Hiring Manager

Application for Mechanical, HVAC Ducting Supervisor

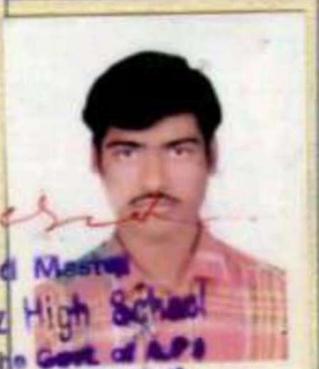

Dear Hiring Manager,

My 23 years of progressive experience as a Mechanical Supervisor, particularly in overseeing intricate mechanical installations and ensuring operational excellence, aligns perfectly with the dynamic requirements of the Mechanical, HVAC, Ducting Supervisor. I have a proven history of leading complex projects, such as the Umm Al Houl Power Plant, Rush project Haram shareef Makkah, Oil & gas Project and Riyadh Metro Station, consistently achieving timely project completion and exceeding performance expectations, skills directly transferable to maintaining Rotana's high-standard facilities. My expertise spans managing and executing critical installations, where I meticulously ensured compliance with stringent engineering specifications. This involved extensive technical drawing interpretation and precise fitting installation for large-scale ducting systems, leading to optimal equipment performance from inception. While my background is deeply rooted in ducting, the core principles of precise installation, quality control, and rigorous mechanical oversight are universally applicable to diverse mechanical equipment, including those found in kitchen and laundry operations, ensuring seamless functionality across your property. Beyond technical proficiency, I excel in comprehensive project supervision and cross-functional coordination, fostering effective collaboration among various teams to meet tight deadlines. For instance, in supervising operations for the Umm Al Houl Power Plant, I streamlined processes and implemented rigorous testing and commissioning protocols, which are foundational to effective preventive maintenance schedules. My ability to identify and resolve complex problem-solving challenges, coupled with a commitment to training engineering employees, creates opportunities for skill enhancement and multitasking, mirroring Rotana's dedication to professional development. I am confident that my robust experience in mechanical systems, leadership in critical projects, and commitment to operational efficiency make me an ideal candidate to contribute significantly to Rotana Hotels. I am eager to leverage my skills to maintain your prestigious property's equipment to the highest standards and enhance your guests' experience. Thank you for considering my application; I look forward to discussing how my capabilities can support your upcoming operational goals and contribute to your team's success.

Sincerely,
Mohammed Shafiuddin
